We will always ensure that all third party suppliers and processors are subject to GDPR compliant Data Processing Agreements.

We will not share your information outside the EU unless specific safeguards are in place, for example by using approved contractual agreements and/or the destination is included in the GDPR list of countries meeting the adequacy criteria. Please note that our main system servers for the SARD and Foundry software are based in the EU and user data is not transferred outside this region (as bound by our Data Processor Agreement)

We will never sell your data to any third party or use automated decision making systems in relation to your personal data.

How and when can you withdraw your consent?

If we are relying on your consent to process or hold personal data, you can withdraw this at any time by contacting us on the details above.

What should you do if your information changes?

You can contact us at any time to update the details we hold

For how long do we retain your personal information?

Unless otherwise discussed, we will hold your personal information:

- For as long as we have reasonable business needs such as managing our contract with you and our operations.
- For retention periods in line with legal and regulatory requirements or guidance.

What are your personal rights and how do you contact us?

If at any point you believe the personal information we hold on you is incorrect, you want us to correct or delete that information, or you no longer want us to hold that information or contact you, you can exercise your rights under the current Data Protection laws. These rights include:

- Right of access
- Right to rectification
- Right to erasure
- Right to restriction of processing
- Right to data portability
- Right to object

For any enquiries regarding exercising these rights please contact us at info@sardjv.co.uk or 0208 771 4153.
